3. Purpose: To discuss proposals for the "C" unit and the finishing up of the "B" unit.

4. Discussion:

a. [redacted] will write proposals anew for both the "C" unit and for finishing up the "B" unit. The finishing of the "B" unit will be written three ways depending on what drawings we require.

25X1

b. The proposal for the "C" unit may be reduced some but not much. This will be discussed with [redacted]

c. Some discussion on pictures for the handbook. [redacted] does not have the facilities for developing and printing although they do have a camera. [redacted] suggested the exposed film be delivered to us for processing.

d. Discussions were held on the operating handbook. Much material was deleted for reasons of security or for reasons that the operator doesn't need to read a text book. Schematics were added to this manual. It will be necessary for us to check the manuscript before editing. [redacted] will call when the manuscript is ready for checking.
